'Cardigan' is from the well known story by Robert W. Chambers, America's best known writer of novels and tells one of the most romantic stories ever filmed. The love story threads its way through the early period of the American Revolution and is said to be the most amazing film of realism ever enacted on the screen. It his been reported that when it was shown for the first time in this country at the Capitol theatre, in New York city, the world's largest motion picture theatre, the first night audience stood on the chairs and cheered themselves hoarse for ten minutes.

Irene Coming to Broadway. Hene Coming to Broadway.

With its bright lines, amusing altinations and charming music and above all, a musical play with a coherent story, "Irene," James Montgomery's universal record breaking musical comedy, the music of which is by Harry Tierney and the lyrics by Joseph McCarthy, will be presented by its original sponsors. The Vanderbill Producing Company, at the Broadway theatre, Tuesday evening, May 3th, for an engagement of one night only.

sth, for an engagement of one night only.

So little can be said that has not previously been told in every newspaper, magazine, and fashion publication throughout the civilized world, that "Irene" needs no introduction.

It is doubtful if there is a home, club, or office gathering place wherein there is a piano, piano-player or phonograph in all the universe, that one will not find a copy of either "Alice Blue Gown," "Irene," "Last Part of Every Party," "Castle of Dreams." Talk of the Town," or one of the other numerous song him, so nopular has the music been.

The play itself has the distinction of also having been utilized in several instances as a sermon in the largest churches of some of our biggest cities. "Trene" differs from any musical comedy ever written, in that it tells a well connected story, in fact one, that would appeal to even the worst fastidious, were there no musical interruntions, and there is not a number of twice that does not apply to and become must of the idea. Five Big Acts at the Strand. The five Keith acts at the Strand or Thursday, Friday and Saturday will without doubt find favor with all. The Three Weber Girls offer a vaudeville surprise. Three Weber Girls start out to be an exceedingly good singing and dancing act. Then they change their minds and wind up by doing an excep-tionally fine gymnastic turn. It is the change of purpose midway of their per-formance that makes the Three Weber Girls a vaudeville surprise. The girls in addition to their two distinct accom-plishments are fair to look upon as they are a composite of physical grace.

Brent Hayes is The Master of the Batjo. Mr. Hayes has attained as much prominence with his instrument as any other celebrated musician has with his. His programme includes compositions of the great masters as well as a number of simple plantation melodies.

Those who will witness "The Un-known," the intest Richard Talmadge Production, at the Strand theatre will depart with a feeling of satisfaction that they had seen by far the most thrilling picture ever shown on the screen. As "The Unknown," masked champion of the The Unknown, masked champion of the people, Dick's exploits in exposing carloads of hoarded foodstuffs and his many hairbreadth escapes from a score of detectives hired to catch him furnishes Dick a world of opportunity to display his ability as the most agile, active, daredevil exponed, of thrilling stunts in the country.

Breed Theatre,

This afternoon and evening offer the final opportunity for local motion pic-ture lovers to see Tom Mix, the brilliant Fox star, in his latest production, "The Rough Diamond," at the Breed theatre, This photoplay has created a sensation all over the country, due to the fact that Mix has stepped out of his well-known western character portrayals and shows of a gentleman "adventurer" and as a omedy player. With a supporting cast of such established favorites as Eva Nevak, Hector Sarno. Edwin Brady and Sid Jordan, and with a thrilling and remantic story as the background. The Rough Dia-mond" has furnished a novel surprise and treat for the Mix admirers in this city.
